

Regulations on the Editorial Board for the “Journal of Artificial Intelligence Humanities”

Enacted on February 1, 2018

Amended on August 14, 2019

Amended on October 30, 2020

Chapter 1 General provisions

Article 1 (Name) These regulations shall be referred to as “Regulations on the Editorial Board for the Journal of Artificial Intelligence Humanities.”

Article 2 (Purpose) The purpose of these regulations is to define all matters necessary for the editing and publishing of the “Journal of Artificial Intelligence Humanities” by the Chung-Ang University Humanities Research Institute.

Article 3 (Date of publication) The “Journal of Artificial Intelligence Humanities” is published three times a year, and the dates of publication are April 30, August 31 and December 31.

Chapter 2 Organization and mission

Article 4 (Composition) The Editorial Board shall be composed of one chairperson and around 10 editors, and the editor-in-chief shall be appointed by the director of the Chung-Ang University Humanities Research Institute (hereinafter referred to as the director).

Article 5 (Term of the editor-in-chief) The term of the editor-in-chief shall be two years from the date of appointment and can be reappointed.

Article 6 (Appointment of the editors) The editors shall be appointed by the director upon the recommendation of the editor-in-chief considering detailed field of expertise, research achievements, and regional balance.

Article 7 (Eligibility of the editors) The editors shall meet the following requirements:

1. A doctoral degree holder,
2. A person who has made many research achievements in the related fields of artificial intelligence humanities,
3. A person who has a reputation and personality as a scholar.

Article 8 (Term of the editors) The term of the editors shall be two years from the date of appointment and can be reappointed.

Article 9 (Editorial Advisory Board) The Editorial Advisory Board may be established when necessary in relation to the editing and publishing activities of journals and other publications.

Article 10 (Appointment of the editorial director). The editorial director shall be appointed to facilitate the editing and publishing activities of all publications including journals. The editorial director is appointed by the editor-in-chief.

Article 11 (Appointment of the managing editor) The managing editor shall be appointed to assist the editing and publishing activities of all publications including journals and to facilitate the activities of the editorial director.

Article 12 (Duties of the managing editor) The managing editor supports the editorial director's tasks and activities, and assists with all matters concerning the publication of the journals. In addition, the managing editor shall take and preserve the minutes of the Editorial Board meetings.

Article 13 (Duties of the Editorial Board) The duties and activities of the Editorial Board are as follows:

1. Tasks related to publication of journals,
2. Tasks related to review and editing of theses,
3. Other activities related to editing and publishing.

Chapter 3 Editorial conference

Article 14 (Convocation) The editorial conference shall be convened by the editor-in-chief from time to time. If necessary, five or more editors or the director may convene the editorial conference.

Article 15 (Establishment) The editorial conference requires the attendance of at least five editors.

Article 16 (Resolution) The agenda of the editorial conference shall be resolved by a majority vote of the members in attendance. However, the editor-in-chief shall make the decision in case of an equal number of votes.

Article 17 (Chairperson) The editor-in-chief shall be the chairperson of the editorial conference. In case the editor-in-chief is absent, one of the editors appointed by the editor-in-chief shall act on his/her behalf.

Article 18 (Decisions) The editorial conference shall discuss and determine matters concerning publication of journals, review, and editing of theses, and other matters related to editing and publication.

Supplementary provisions

(Effective date) These regulations shall be effective from Vol. 1 of the “Journal of Artificial Intelligence Humanities” (published on April 30, 2018).

(Effective date) These regulations are applied and come into force from August 14, 2019.

(Effective date) These regulations are applied and come into force from October 30, 2020.